

democratization, economics development, attraction of investments, increasing of life's level — that is the strategic aims of the new government of the renewed country.